My dear Friend, above thou hast a statement of the contents of the box of contributions sent off yesterday to be shipped per first Boston steamer for the Anti-Slavery Bazaar. I hope they will all reach there in safety & prove available for the good cause. We shall be glad to learn if they escape a heavy duty - as certainly such things should go duty free - being free contributions to the cause of freedom. Our invoice includes contributions from Boston, Leigh - Chelmsford, Leeds, Nottingham & Maidstone - but of course these comprise but a small part of the whole. Your own Edinburgh friends have come out well & considering all our difficulties, we have not much cause to complain - although of course we should have wished to send double the amount, if we could. My mother has

Nov. 11, 1853

written a letter to thee which is enclosed with a purse from Mrs Buchanan - it is a small parcel I mention it that it may not escape thy observation I think there is no need for any adding more as she has said all we wish to say - we have much enjoyed during the summer seeing some of the anti slave friends from your land - Among others Cornelius Bramble his wife, James Miller McKim of Philadelphia of course Harriet Beecher Stowe - although the interests connected with each of these individuals is very different I cannot but think that all are united in the one great wish I earnest to work in the one great work of hastening the day of the slave's emancipation; we watch with increasing interest all the movements going forward amongst you for this object, I earnestly desire that all may tend to promote it - we have not yet had the pleasure of seeing thy sisters but yet hope an opportunity may be afforded us for this gratification - Mary Estlin writes that her father is better I do hope his recovery may be permanent for he is a faithful worker.

About a month since Wilson Armstrong should forward to us for enclosure a large package of his new tracts - but the parcel would have made our boxes quite unwieldy - so with his consent we despatched it direct - I suspect has arrived in safety - the tracts are a very useful series & we are glad to have them for distribution, to help to enlighten the good people of our country - we see that the "Cain's Doll" is published separately if you are sending gazettes (we hope to have as many as you can spare) we should like a few copies of "Mary's Doll" I should
